Man Sentenced to Prison for Killing Toddler Son

A 45-year-old man was sentenced today to 25 years to life in state prison after he was convicted of beating his young son to death, the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office announced.

Jesus Vega Estrada of Anaheim was convicted by a jury on Nov. 14, 2014, of second-degree murder and assault on a child causing death in case KA103873.

Deputy District Attorney Michael Matoba, who prosecuted the case, said on Nov. 27, 2013, Estrada visited his 19-month-old son at the mother's home in Valinda.

At around 11:15 p.m., Estrada told the child's mother that he was going to take him out to purchase some juice and candy, the prosecutor said.

When Estrada and the child returned to the home, the victim was vomiting. The parents then took the child to the hospital where the toddler died early the next morning, the prosecutor added.

At trial, coroner's officials testified that the victim died from blunt force trauma to the liver. Also, the child had trauma to his head, bruising on the body and broken ribs.

The case was investigated by the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Homicide Bureau.
